07.11. Thursday - Arrival of groups before noon in Prague. Upon arrival, there is an optional walking tour of the city center accompanied by a travel guide: Mala Strana, Charles Bridge, Charles Street, Old Town Square, Orloj Astronomical Clock, Church of the Virgin Mary, Jan Hus Monument, Jewish Quarter - Josefov, Paris Street, National Museum, Opera House, Square Saint Vaclav. Hotel accommodation. Info - meeting of group representatives. Dinner. Overnight stay.

08.11. Friday - Breakfast. After breakfast, there is a full-day optional trip to Dresden, the capital of the German state of Saxony, located on the banks of the Elbe River, which gives the entire landscape a special beauty. Dresden is adorned with a long and interesting history, a large number of monuments that testify to the golden age of Saxony and incredible stories about the former ruling family, and especially about Augustus the Strong. The Semper Opera House, the Zwinger, the Cathedral, the Royal Palace, museums, galleries, the New Synagogue, the bridges on the Elbe, promenades and squares are just some of the sights of this magical city. Free time for individual activities. Return to Prague. Dinner. Overnight stay.

09.11. Saturday - Breakfast. Start of Prague Fest Info Dance 2024. Dinner. Overnight stay.

10.11. Sunday - Breakfast. Leaving the hotel. Before noon, optional tour of Prague Castle, the largest fortress in the world: Royal Palace, Cathedral of St. Vít, Monastery of St. Dordá... In the afternoon, it is possible to organize an optional cruise on the Vltava River in Prague. Sailing on a comfortable tourist boat for one hour with legends about Prague. Free time in the center of Prague until departure. Movement of all groups to their place of departure and seeing each other again next year.
